

Women's Housing Coalition Elects Five to Board of Directors

The Women's Housing Coalition has elected Dr. Anne Lin, Deborah L. Whiteley, Donald A. Rea, Diane Seeger and Mary Ann (Donaghy) Voight to its Board of Directors, announced executive director Joann Levy.

The Women's Housing Coalition provides homeless women and children with a range of housing options and supportive services to enable them to sustain social and financial independence.

Dr. Anne Lin is currently the Founding Dean and Professor of the new School of Pharmacy at the College of Notre Dame of Maryland.

Deborah Whiteley is a Certified Public Accountant in the real estate division of Hertzbach and Company, P.A.

Donald Rea is a partner in the Baltimore office of the law firm McGuireWoods LLP. His practice focuses on commercial real estate and development litigation.

Diane Seeger is Managing Director, HR Corporate Services for AAA – Mid Atlantic.

Mary Ann Donaghy is principal of a marketing consulting practice, Insights & Action.

"We're excited to have this group of outstanding and dedicated professionals bring their variety of talents and experience to the board of directors of the Women's Housing Coalition," said board president Dianna Boucher. "Their commitment to service and providing support to non-profit organizations will help the Women's Housing Coalition continue to deliver quality housing and life skills training to women and children in need throughout Baltimore."

*Founded in 1979, the Women's Housing Coalition has been on the forefront in the development of housing options for low-income women in Baltimore City. The nonprofit owns and/or operates the Bennett House, the Margaret Jenkins House, Susanna Wesley House, and The Calverton, among other smaller housing units. In addition to providing housing, the Women's Housing Coalition also equips women with work and life skills through a variety of career training, supportive services, and intensive case management.
